The overall message from participants and Mr. Stjepan Mesić, President of the Republic of Croatia (2000-2010) was that WAG Games 2015, in BRATISLAVA, were held in good and friendly atmosphere. An extract, below, from a letter to WAG Head Office from Prof Dr Mrs. Nawal Salah Eldin, President of WAG Oman bears testimony:

"After resting a little bit I want to share with you my experience in 2nd WAG in Bratislava .. I came to the event worried about setting with people who are different in many things; coming from different fields of art and different countries with different colors and believes but somehow I was surprised to find out that does not exist .. All of us were united by the idea of love , we all love what we do we came with open minds and hearts to take a glance on what others can create and to learn from each other ; those who have great experience shared with other their lifetime experience .. No one missed an opportunity to tell the other that he/she did well.. And many people helped me to be one of the group either by little chats over dinner or conversations about each other work; I liked how people were not just accepting the differences but trying to understand it . Encouragement , support and cooperation and above all the passion to make a change are really what makes this organization unique. From my point of view this is what we can call a real cultural project."

“Imagination is more important than knowledge. For knowledge is limited to all we now know and understand, while imagination embraces the entire world, and all there ever will be to know and understand.”

- Albert Einstein

“Anyone who lives withing their means suffers from a serious lack of imagination.” – Oscar Wilde

Thanks to the imagination of 2 Croatian artists, Peter Wiesz and Jasminka Paunović, the organization, now known as WAG International, was born, in 2009,

WAG UK’s Vision, Mission, Values, Principles and Strategy derive from those of WAG International - see WAG International’s Charter. <http://www.wagames.org/?q=wag/charter>

WAG UK STRATEGIC DIRECTION (November 2015 - October 2017)

1 Providing internationally accredited, globally credible and customised management & leadership T.E.D. Programmes for Art and Culture. The goal is to assist members and non-members of WAG International in the Art & culture industry to better serve their professional and personal aspirations. (T.E.D. - Training, Education and Development). T.E.D. will be available through both distance and face-to-face blended learning methodology across 3 modes of delivery - 1/2/all 3 of - on-line provision/workshop format/educational cultural visits.

2 Promoting the value of art and culture through international cultural educational visits. This is a unique provision from WAG UK NC because of our membership of WAG International. One of the Mission statements of WAG International (over 65 countries and growing) is to create, synchronize and manage cultural activities for the benefit of members, enabling them to increase the value of their work. We will also provide international remedial English Language classes for our cultural projects. These activities will enhance communication as well as deepen various communities' understanding of the impact of art and culture here in the UK and within a global context.

3 Using Visual, Literary & Performance Arts to promote harmony between nations. Through our work we will concentrate on making a strong case to local, national governments and international bodies about the essential needs (not wants) to sustain the public value of art and culture to both young and mature individuals, able and disabled and to demonstrate their positive contribution to society and to the national economy. TEAM UK advanced Strategy 1 & 3 at 2nd Games in 2015.

The 2nd WAG Games 2015, in BRATISLAVA, was a good example of using Art & Culture to promote harmony between nations (see the extract from Prof Nawal's letter, above). PLEASE JOIN US @ WAG UK. THANK YOU. Dr Chief Mansour Olawale Jumaa, President, WAG UK NC - wagukcic@outlook.com November 2015
